

Construction Environmental Awareness

Classroom Course

This one-day course is designed to provide participants with general information on environmental issues and specific information on construction-related legislation, processes, and requirements.

Course Topics

- Understanding the environment
- Construction and the environment
- Environmental legislation and standards
- Environmental assessments
- Contract considerations
- Environmental management systems
- Handling spills

Certification

Participants must complete an in-class case study to receive certification. There is no written test for this course.

Prerequisites

None required at this time.