

NAOSH WEEK SPECIAL

Fall Protection Training – OSSA Certified

In this 8 hour course, participants learn about the different pieces of equipment that make up a fall protection system, as well as the rules regarding when fall protection systems are required, what type to use, and how to avoid potential hazards. Participants will also learn how to do a proper fall calculation and learn how to figure out the minimum clearance requirements to work safely from heights.

Course content:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Governing Bodies and Regulations • Fall Protection Planning • Fall Arrest Systems Components • Harness Fitting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dynamics of Falling • Fall Protection Systems • Clearance and Free Fall Calculations • Equipment Care and Inspection
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Dates: May 8, 9 or 10, 2017

Time: 8:00 am to 4:30 pm

Location: Rhino Integrated Safety Services Ltd.
#9, 4699 – 61 Street Red Deer, Alberta
403-358-5102

Cost: • $75 ea (+ GST) for Members of:

- ❖ Parkland Regional Safety Committee
- ❖ Alberta Construction Safety Association
- ❖ Red Deer Construction Association
- ❖ Canadian Society of Safety Engineering

NOTE: A maximum of 5 employees per MEMBER COMPANY are allowed at $75 ea (1/2 price).

• $125 ea (+ GST) for Non-Members

Date:
Company Name:
Company Contact:
Phone #:	Email:
Member of (if applicable):
of Registrations for Members ($75 ea):
of Registrations for Non-Members ($125 ea)
Total:	$

Name of Attendees & Course Date Preferred

1.	4.
2.	5.
3.

E-mail this Registration Form Directly to admin@rhinotraining.ca

Sponsors:

