NCSO Award Application

Introduction

The Alberta Construction Safety Association (ACSA) – Lethbridge Regional Safety Committee (LRSC) has designated award funds in the amount of $1000.00 per year.

This award is to be given to an individual or individuals employed in the construction industry working towards achieving the National Construction Safety Officer (NCSO) designation. Potential candidates are expected to be using their knowledge gained from training courses and on the job experience to influence positive changes in health and safety at their employer's work site(s).

Application Process

1. Potential award recipients are required to submit an essay (500 words or less) describing their industry experiences and what they are doing to improve health and safety for their employer.
2. Complete applicant and employer information on the NCSO Award Application form.
3. Submit application by November 15th to:

NCSO Awards Committee
ACSA Lethbridge Regional Safety Committee
1705 – 36 Street North
Lethbridge, AB T1H 6L1

4. Applications and inspection results will be reviewed by the LRSC and a recipient selected.
5. Funds (at the discretion of the LRSC) may be applied to the recipient's course of study, safety equipment, PPE, tools, safety conference expenses and/or safety related subscriptions/publications. Receipts for these expenses are to be submitted to the NCSO Awards Committee on or before November 15th of each year.
