

NCSO Award Nomination form

Description

The National Construction Safety Officer (NCSO) of the Year Award recognizes safety representatives who have worked hard to build their safety careers in construction by managing projects and/or initiatives and by participating in extracurricular activities, such as training and volunteering to enhance safety in the workplace.

By shining a light on these safety leaders, we promote their efforts and drive to make Alberta's construction industry safer.

Eligibility

- This award is open to individuals who have earned their NCSO designation (nationally) with the ACSA or other CFCSA partners.
- Must have operated in Alberta during the previous year.
- If NCSO is through a CFCSA partner, you must have completed ACSA's Legislation Awareness course.
- Must be an active NCSO.
- Must be working for an ACSA member company.

Conditions

- All sections of the nomination form must be completed. Nominators are strongly advised to provide as much information as possible.
- Nominators must include supporting materials/evidence (reference letters, resumes, photos, statistics, and reports) with their nominations.
- Self-nominations are permitted.
- The individual has not won this award in the past three years.

Form completion and submission instructions

- Before inputting your responses to the questions below, download and save this form on your computer. This is to ensure that you do not lose your responses.
- After you complete the form, save it again and submit it with your supporting materials.
- All additional information or supporting documents must be attached to the nomination form and emailed as one package to awards@yourACSA.ca
